REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Members
Family Management Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Family Management Securities, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2017 and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2017, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2015.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Nature of business and summary of significant accounting policies

Nature of Business

Family Management Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the state of Delaware on April 27, 1998. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") that introduces brokerage accounts on a fully disclosed basis to a clearing broker.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

At December 31, 2017, the carrying value of the Company's financial instruments, such as, receivables from clearing broker, other receivables and due from affiliate, approximate their fair values due to the nature of their short term maturities.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company, and treated as a partnership for income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code provides that any income or loss is passed through to the members for federal and state income tax purposes. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for federal or state income taxes. The Company is subject to the New York City unincorporated business tax.

At December 31, 2017, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will always be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require.

2. Net capital requirement

The Company, as a member of FINRA, is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2017, the Company's net capital was approximately $402,000 which was approximately $302,000 in excess of its minimum net capital requirement of $100,000.

3. Off-balance sheet risk

Pursuant to a clearance agreement, the Company introduces all of its securities transactions to a clearing broker on a fully-disclosed basis. All of the customers' money balances and long and short security positions are carried on the books of the clearing broker. In accordance with the clearance agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses, if any, which the clearing brokers may sustain from carrying securities transactions introduced by the Company. In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the clearing broker monitor collateral on the customers' accounts.

In addition, the receivables from the clearing broker are pursuant to this clearance agreement and include a clearing deposit of $152,381.

4. Concentrations of credit risk

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution, settlement, and financing of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

The Company maintains its cash balances in various financial institutions. These balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 per institution through December 31, 2017.

The Company's policy is to continuously monitor its exposure to market and counter party risk through the use of a variety of financial, position and credit exposure reporting and control procedures. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing the counterpart, primarily broker-dealers, banks and other financial institutions, with which it conducts business.

5. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to exemptive provisions of sub paragraph (k)(2)(ii) as all customer transactions are cleared through a clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis.

6. Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the management of the Company, will consult with legal counsel, if it believes that there are any issues which might have a material effect on the financial condition. There are no issues to report.

7. Related party transactions

The Company has an agreement with Family Management Corporation ("FMC"), a related entity, whereby FMC provides certain administrative services and the use of certain office space in connection with the Company's operations. In exchange for these services and office space, the Company is billed a representative allocation of direct expenses based on square footage, human resources and other related factors. At December 31, 2017, the Company has a receivable from affiliate of approximately $21,000.

A majority of the Company's customers are referrals from FMC, an investment advisor registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940.
